* Running Australia is a national network developed by Athletics Australia to bring events within the running industry under a collaborative structure. Running Australia aims to bring a level of professionalism across the sport by encouraging event organisers to focus on quality management. The ultimate aim of Running Australia is to develop a structure for the industry that supports, and more effectively services, the millions of Australians participating in healthy, fun and organised physical activity via fun runs / running events. There are currently over 60 events within this network. Running Australia Sanctioned Events are identified by the following logo appearing on event information - entry forms, flyers, websites etc.
